

Case Study Category: MPWW

Case Study Title: Guidelines for Developing an Asset Management Plan, Portland Water Bureau in Portland, Oregon

Utility Name: Portland Water Bureau

Case Study Abstract: This case study describes the main steps and considerations required in developing an asset management plan in the Portland Water Bureau. Although asset management in general always include similar components, each utility adapts a generic framework according to its own needs, culture, and objectives.

Case Study Link: <http://www.waterid.org/content/guidelines-developing-asset-management-plans-portland-water-bureau>