

Case Study Category: MPWW

Case Study Title: Hydraulic model for capacity assessment at Howard County, Maryland

Utility Name: Howard County

Case Study Abstract: This case study introduces the hydraulic model that Howard County uses for the capacity analysis of sewer pipes. The software package for this model is introduced and the basic algorithm was explained. It also has an introduction of the model setup, calibration, and the analysis conducted for current systems.

Case Study Link: <http://waterid.org/content/howard-county-department-public-works-maryland-procedures-manual-sewer-system-evaluation-s-0/>