

Case Study Category: MPDW

Case Study Title: Water Pipe Case Study for Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, Laurel, Maryland

Utility Name: Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission (WSSC)

Case Study Abstract: The Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission (WSSC) is a public utility located in Maryland. This utility serves a population of 1.8 million people and manages water and wastewater pipes. The operating budget of the WSSC is approximately $757 million per year. The miles of water pipe controlled and operated by the WSSC based on pipe material type and diameter is provided. The information presented in this case study is based on the utility information, and additional documents and presentations provided by WSSC.

Case Study Link: <http://waterid.org/content/water-pipe-case-study-washington-suburban-sanitary-commission-laurel-maryland>